

NOTICE 19-2022: OPERATIONS AT THE PORT OF POINT LISAS DUE TO TROPICAL SYSTEM

June 28th, 2022

Please be advised that due to the adverse weather conditions expected to affect Trinidad and Tobago, operations at the Port of Point Lisas will be curtailed until the passage of system or until normal weather conditions resume.

The Port is making all attempts to expedite operations where possible, however, both vessel and yard operations will cease effective 1500 hours. Normal operations are expected to resume at 0700 hours on Wednesday June 29th. We are carefully monitoring the updates from the metrological office, Office of Disaster Preparedness and Management (ODPM) and international weather services and will therefore keep stakeholders advised of any further changes to operations.

During this time, the undermentioned departments can be contacted as follows:
